Amber—Audience Hall and Gate. Amber was founded in the 11th century and was the capital of Jaipur till 1728: it is now ruined and deserted. It is picturesquely situated at the mouth of a rocky gorge in which nestles a lake. The old palace lies low on the slope of the hill and is reflected in the lake. It is a grand pile; its cool green gardens with fountains, surrounded by noble pavilions brilliant with mosaics and marbles.
